

FINAL PREPARATIONS NOW COMPLETE FOR WOMAN'S CLUB THIRD ANNUAL CARNIVAL

In addition to a handsome handmade applique quilt and other gifts, nylon, boxed stationery, a Cannon bath towel set, a breakfast cloth and candy have been added to the many valuable and useful prizes to be given away Saturday March 15 during Torrance Woman's club third annual carnival, in their clubhouse, 1422 Engracia ave.

The carnival, planned for the entertainment of every member of the family, will offer such attractions as bingo with prizes, a country store, a garden booth, gift shop and a book stall with best sellers. A fortune teller with exceptional talents will be available for those interested.

Aprons and pot holders will be sold and for those who like to be surprised there will be a grab bag, a white elephant booth, as well as a cherry tree laden with a variety of gifts.

In addition, freshly made popcorn and home made candy will be sold in attractive containers. A food sale will specialize in delectable baked goods, casseroles, cassoulets and other cooked foods.

Planned as a special attraction for children, a beautifully decorated circus cake will be given away.

Everyone is invited. Tickets at 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children may be procured at the door.

IS CONVALESCENT

BRIDAL COUPLE . . . Mr. William Irwin Rogers and his lovely bride who were united in marriage Saturday evening in an impressive candlelight ceremony. The popular couple will live here following their honeymoon trip to Crestline and Lake Arrowhead.

In an impressive candlelight ceremony performed Saturday evening in St. Andrew's Episcopal church Miss Dolores Hanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Hanks, of 909 Sartori ave., became the bride of Mr. William Irwin Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Rogers, of 1605 Beech ave. Rev. Paul M. Wheeler officiated in the presence of 150 wedding guests.

Given in marriage by her father the lovely bride was attired in gold brocade with white satin with matching long gloves. She carried a bridal corsage of white orchids on a white prayer-book.

Bridal Attendants

Patricia Townsend, as maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of pink lace and net and carried pink carnations and sweet peas. Louise Weisburg, as flower girl, wore a replica of the bride's gown. Raymond M. Rogers was the groom's attendant and Gordon Smith and Jack Smith ushered.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Phyllis McVicar sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." A reception at Parish hall followed the church ceremony.

Upon their return from a honeymoon trip to Crestline and Lake Arrowhead Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will live temporarily at the home of his parents.

Both were graduated from Torrance high school and attended Compton junior college.

Prenuptial Showers

Among the lovely prenuptial affairs given for the charming bride was a miscellaneous shower arranged at the home of Mrs. Elma Quigley, 1003 Arlington ave.

An evening of music preceded the presentation of many beautiful gifts. Vocal selections by Miss Dorothy Morris and Mrs. Lucille Styles, accompanied by Mrs. Lillian Blackman were thoroughly enjoyed.

Angel food cake, fresh strawberries and other refreshments were served from a prettily appointed buffet table. White candles and pink and white stock suggested the bridal theme followed.

Those present were the honoree and her mother, Mrs. John H. Hanks, Mesdames R. J. Rogers, Louise Maier, Arville Owens, Faye Anderson, Grace Ashley, Merle Boyce, Evelyn Brown, Clairbel Darling, Lillian Droke, Agnes Glass, Mina Jennings, Ann Keifert, Jane Morrison, Katherine Quigley, Lucille Styles, Genevieve Summers, Vivian Watts, Lillian Blackman and the Misses Lillian Faulkner, Dorothy Morris, Lucille Peacock, Laura Mae Sheen, and Pat Townsend.

Personal Shower

Another attractively appointed personal shower was that given earlier at the home of Miss Nadine Paur, who was assisted by Miss Pat Townsend, as co-hostess.

Shower games were the diversion with Miss Madeline Ban as prizewinner.

Pastel candles and decorated pastel iced cake enhanced the buffet table from which guests were served.

Guests were the honoree and her mother, and Mesdames Raymond Rogers, Sam Intermill, Guy DeWitt, Richard Rojo, Roger Hornback, Gordon Smith, Charles T. Rippey, Jr., and the Misses Barbara Lock, Madeline Ban and Elsa Stanton.

AT FINLAYSON HOME

Visitors at Mrs. L. G. Finlayson's home Sunday were her mother, Mrs. Kathryn Caspers, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Rademaker, all of Lynwood and Dorris Rademaker and sons, Leo and Paul, of South Dakota.
